HERE'S THE SALE OF SALES—one that will long be remembered by Washington women as the most remarkable value-giving event of its kind ever known in the history of this city's retailing. A rather strong statement—but one that we are fully able to substantiate with styles and qualities that back up every claim made in this advertisement.

No other Washington store has ever succeeded in gathering such a wonderful array of bargains in women's wash dresses, and it will be a long time before we expect to be able to offer anything quite so exceptional in the way of dress selling. The reason why they are sold at such amazingly low cost concerns the maker only, and it is unnecessary to go into details about that.

There are exactly 1,441 Dresses in the sale—divided as follows:

269 White Lingerie Dresses, worth $7.00, $8.00, and $10.00.
172 White French Voile Dresses, worth $6.00, $8.00, and $10.00.
81 Colored Marquisette Dresses, worth $5.00, $6.00, and $8.00.
275 Colored Lawn Dresses, worth $4.00, $5.00, and $6.00.
188 Mercerized Foulard Dresses, worth $4.00, $5.00, and $6.00.
69 White Linene Dresses, worth $4.00, $5.00, and $6.00.
192 Gingham Dresses, worth $3.00, $4.00, and $5.00.
114 Madras Dresses, worth $3.00, $4.00, and $5.00.
81 Percalé Dresses, worth $3.00, $3.50, and $4.00.

The styles are the very newest and most fetching for this season's wear, and are shown in a very large assortment of designs and charming combinations. In fact they are too numerous to be described here.

All sizes in the lot from 34 to 44, as well as misses' sizes in 14 to 20 years.

Of course there's advantage in being an early visitor—for the best values and prettiest styles will naturally be the first to find owners.
